“This is Amazing Grace”

Therefore there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. Romans 8:1-2

Welcome

Invocation

“My Redeemer Lives”

“Peace be with you.” Then He said to Thomas, “Reach here with your finger, and see My hands; and reach here your hand and put it into My side; and do not be unbelieving, but believing.” John 20:26-27

Scripture, Psalm 145:8-13

“What a Beautiful Name”

God, after He spoke long ago to the fathers in the prophets in many portions and in many ways, in these last days has spoken to us in His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the world. And He is the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His nature, and uphold all things by the word of His power. Hebrews 1:1-3

Pastoral Prayer

Offering box and envelopes are in the foyer.

Ministry of the Word

Communion

“Graves Into Gardens”

For He rescued us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. Colossians 1:13-14

Benediction

We are beloved.
We belong to Christ.
We are becoming one.

Looking Forward

Please take a cracked glass bead from the jar located in the foyer. On Good Friday, glass panels were broken representing our journey into the discomfort of suffering, loss and brokenness. While we wait in uncertainty from the unresolved work that God is doing, He invites us to be still. The resurrection is proof that His presence always brings life. The cracks remain with new beauty.

Beloved

Being Belonging Becoming

²⁶Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and to enter into His glory?...”

²⁸And they approached the village where they were going, and He acted as though He were going farther.

²⁹But they urged Him, saying, “Stay with us, for it is getting toward evening, and the day is now nearly over.” So He went in to stay with them.

³⁰When He had reclined at the table with them, He took the bread and blessed it, and breaking it, He began giving it to them.

³¹Then their eyes were opened and they recognized Him; and He vanished from their sight.

³²They said to one another, “were not our hearts burning within us while He was speaking to us on the road, while He was explaining the Scriptures to us?”

³³And they got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found gathered together the eleven and those who were with them,

³⁴saying, “The Lord has really risen and has appeared to Simon.” ³⁵They began to relate their experiences on the road and how He was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

⁴But when the fullness of time came, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, ⁵so that we might receive the adoption as sons. ⁶Because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, “Abba! Father!”

Our Mission: To become lifelong followers of Jesus Christ, living holy lives of love and service, inviting others to discover God’s goodness and grace.

Our History: The name Wesleyan is in honor of John Wesley, a priest in the Church of England who became the inspiration behind the “Methodist Movement.” Through their disciplined routine of spiritual devotion and social work, Wesley and his followers earned the nickname “Methodists.”

In 1843, a group of pastors separated from the Methodist Episcopal Church because of their strong convictions to abolish slavery and their desire for a more democratic form of church government. This movement became known as the Wesleyan Methodist Connection.

An itinerant Preacher, G.W. Sibley was used by God in the summer of 1857 to begin a work that would span generations to come. Through his preaching the gospel here on what became known as “Ball Hill,” the family of Daniel S. Ball established a lasting faith in Jesus Christ. Committed to the work of God’s kingdom they organized the Forestville Wesleyan Methodist Church in 1858. He then returned in 1881 leading the congregation through the construction of the building, where we worship today.

Our Heritage has been forged by men and women who stood on the truth of God’s Word, trusted in the forgiveness of Jesus Christ and served with love and selflessness. May we be found faithful with this sacred trust, to carry the light of Jesus, to all who come behind us.
