“Here I am To Worship”

Exalt the Lord our God and worship at His holy hill, for holy is the Lord our God. Psalm 99:9

Welcome

Invocation

“Ever Be”

I saw the Lord always in my presence; for He is at my right hand, so that I will not be shaken. Therefore my heart was glad and my tongue exulted; moreover my flesh also will live in hope Acts 2:25-26

Scripture, Luke 22:14-20

Pastoral Prayer

Communion

“Redeemed”

Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name; you are Mine! When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be scorched, nor will the flame burn you. For I am the Lord your God, The holly One of Israel, your Savior. Isaiah 43:2-3

Offering box and envelopes are in the foyer.

Ministry of the Word

“Lord, I Need You”

Do not fear, for I am with you; do not anxiously look about you, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, surely I will help you, surely I will uphold you with My righteous right hand. Isaiah 41:10

Benediction

We are beloved.
We belong to Christ.
We are becoming one.

Looking Forward

24 Days remain in Lent 2021, how will you engage this time for Christ to be formed in you? This is our opportunity to Seek...Surrender and Serve. Letting go of significant things allows us to see the interference between our hearts and God’s presence. Spending time reading scripture and listening to God will help us to see our lives and circumstances as God sees them. Investing our resources of time and treasure into the lives of others will grow our capacity to love.

Sunday School, 10:00am, Come and enjoy a Ball Hill morning with a good cup of coffee and great discussion around God’s Word.

The new issue “Our Daily Bread” is available.

Your help is needed in the Fellowship Hall as we complete the renovations to the interior. There is wall paper to peel and carpet to pull. These may be tedious tasks but many hands will make the work light. Let Pastor know when you can come help.

Children’s Ministry Project, in honor of Jane Wright, we would like to put together some Easter gift bags that we will deliver to children that we connect with.

We would like to put together at least 25 bags of candy and small toys. A basket will be in the foyer for any items you would like to donate.

Worship by Appointment, don’t let the concern of public gathering keep you from worship. If you would like to set a time to come privately or with your quarantine group I would love to facilitate a time of worship and communion with you. Please call the church at 965-2353 to make your appointment.

Tuesday, March 16th, 7:00pm Exploring Belovedness, in 12 Zoom Conversations each Tuesday and Thursday for 6 weeks. A link is on our homepage.

We will be approximately $2,500 short to include the gas fireplace in finishing the Annex renovations. If you would like to help complete the picture for our gathering space please give to the Building Fund.

Know who you are as you read His letter of love

Beloved

Being Belonging Becoming

¹¹For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; ¹²not as Cain, who was of the evil one and slew his brother. And for what reason did he slay him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous.

²³This is His commandment, that we believe in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as He commanded us. ²⁴The one who keeps His commandments abides in Him, and He in him. We know by this that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us. 1 John 3

Divine-Human Partnership (Genesis 4:5-7)

Am I My Brother's Keeper? (Genesis 4:8-9)

Keep the Command (1 John 3:23-24)

Forestville Wesleyan Church

Our Mission: To become lifelong followers of Jesus Christ, living holy lives of love and service, inviting others to discover God's goodness and grace.

Our History: The name Wesleyan is in honor of John Wesley, a priest in the Church of England who became the inspiration behind the "Methodist Movement." Through their disciplined routine of spiritual devotion and social work, Wesley and his followers earned the nickname "Methodists."

In 1843, a group of pastors separated from the Methodist Episcopal Church because of their strong convictions to abolish slavery and their desire for a more democratic form of church government. This movement became known as the Wesleyan Methodist Connection.

An itinerant Preacher, G.W. Sibley was used by God in the summer of 1857 to begin a work that would span generations to come. Through his preaching the gospel here on what became known as "Ball Hill," the family of Daniel S. Ball established a lasting faith in Jesus Christ. Committed to the work of God's kingdom they organized the Forestville Wesleyan Methodist Church in 1858. He then returned in 1881 leading the congregation through the construction of the building, where we worship today.

Our Heritage has been forged by men and women who stood on the truth of God's Word, trusted in the forgiveness of Jesus Christ and served with love and selflessness. May we be found faithful with this sacred trust, to carry the light of Jesus, to all who come behind us.
